ARROW

1968

James A. Garfield
Seattle, Washington

FOREWORD

To move ahead beyond the place we are,
To search the heavens for another star,
To set the arrow up, to string the bow,
And then, with skill and confidence, let go,
To do the best we can as best we might:
O, please make us worthy of the flight!

Anonymous

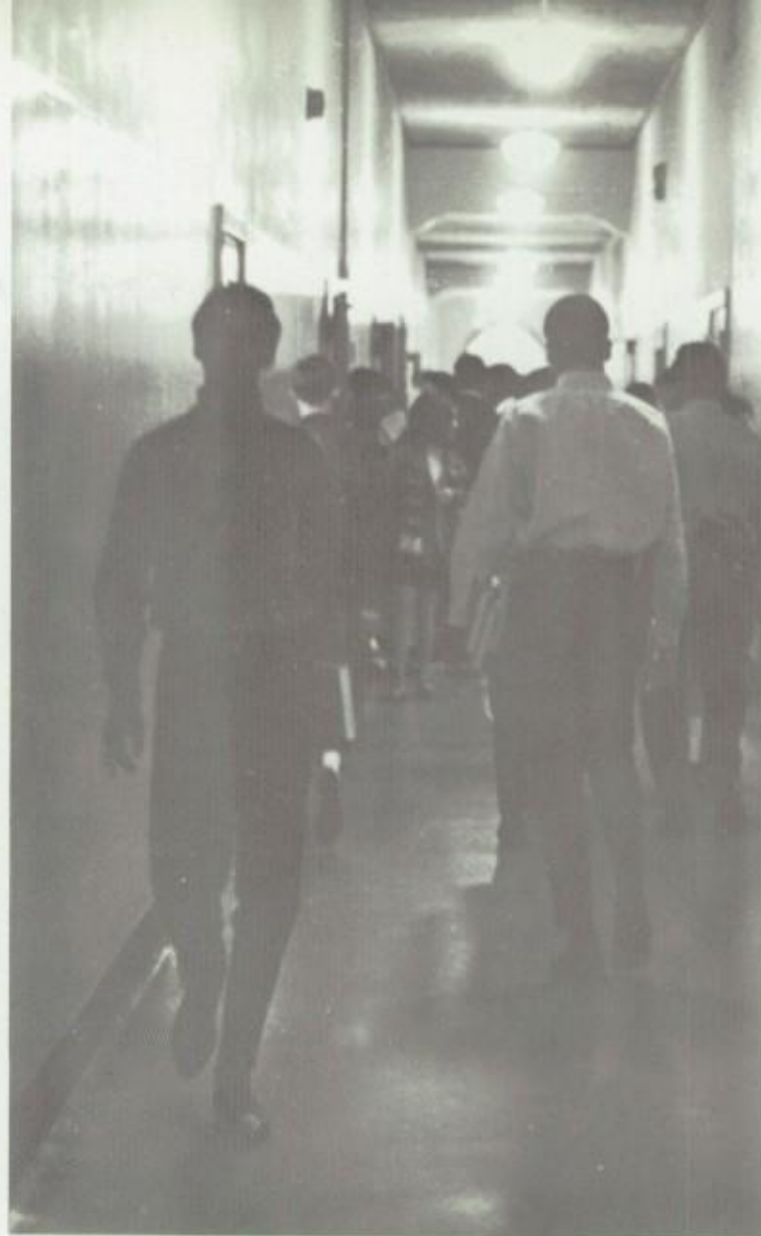

"This is June, the month of grass and leaves . . . Already the aspens are trembling again, and a new summer is offered me.

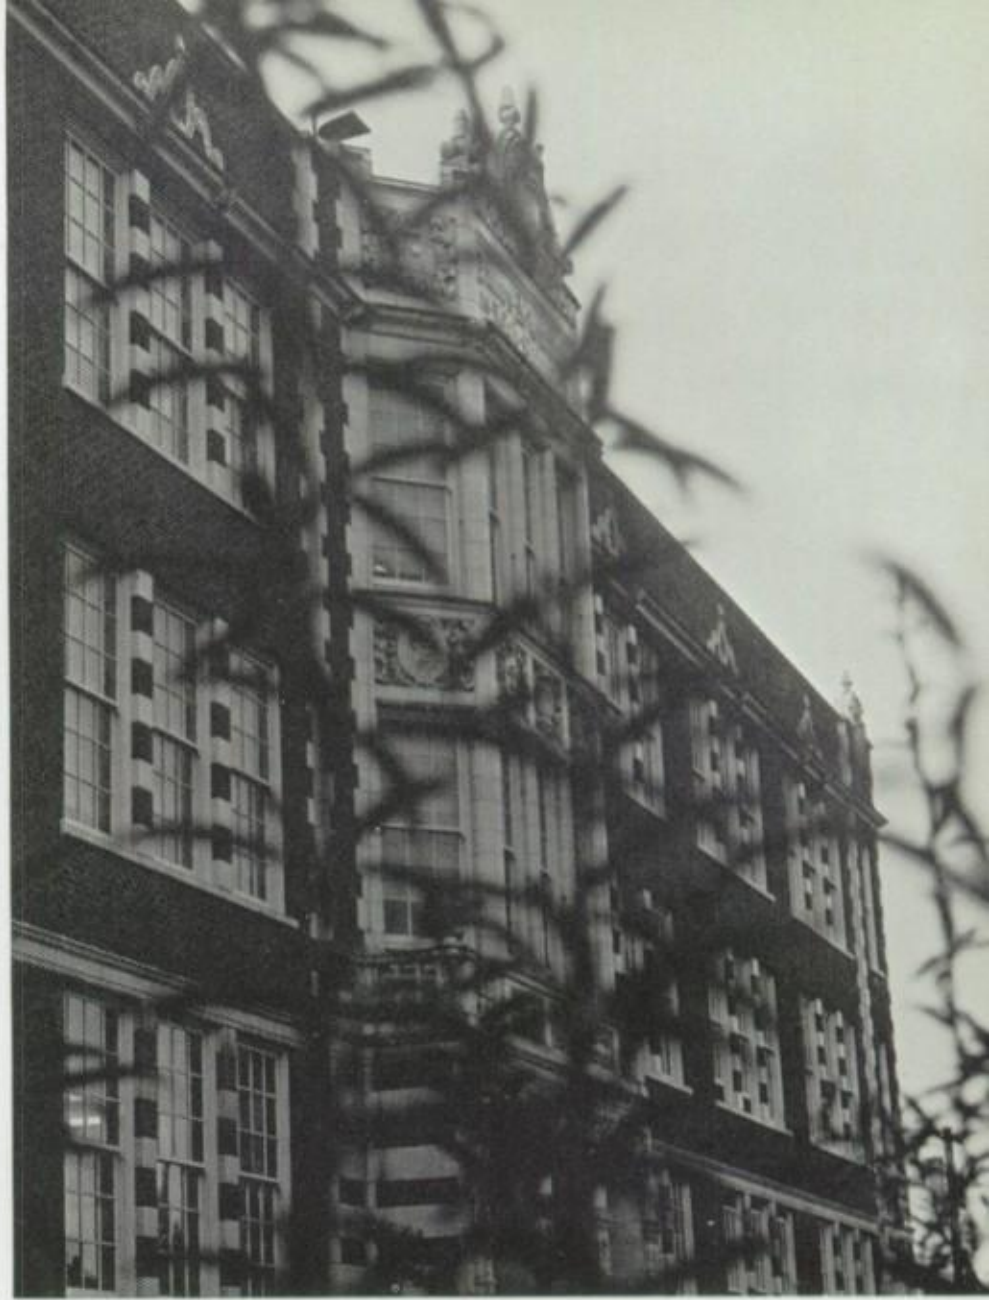

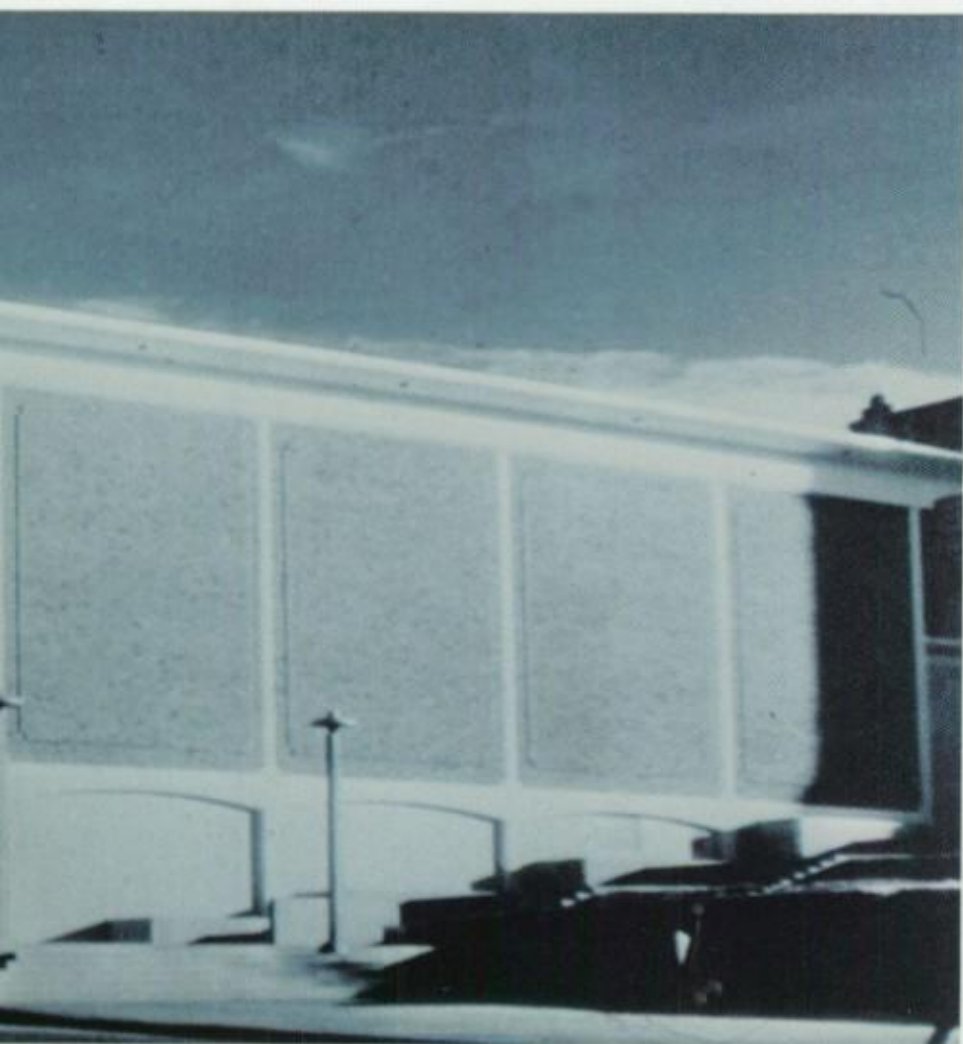

I feel a little fluttered in my thoughts, as if I might be too late.

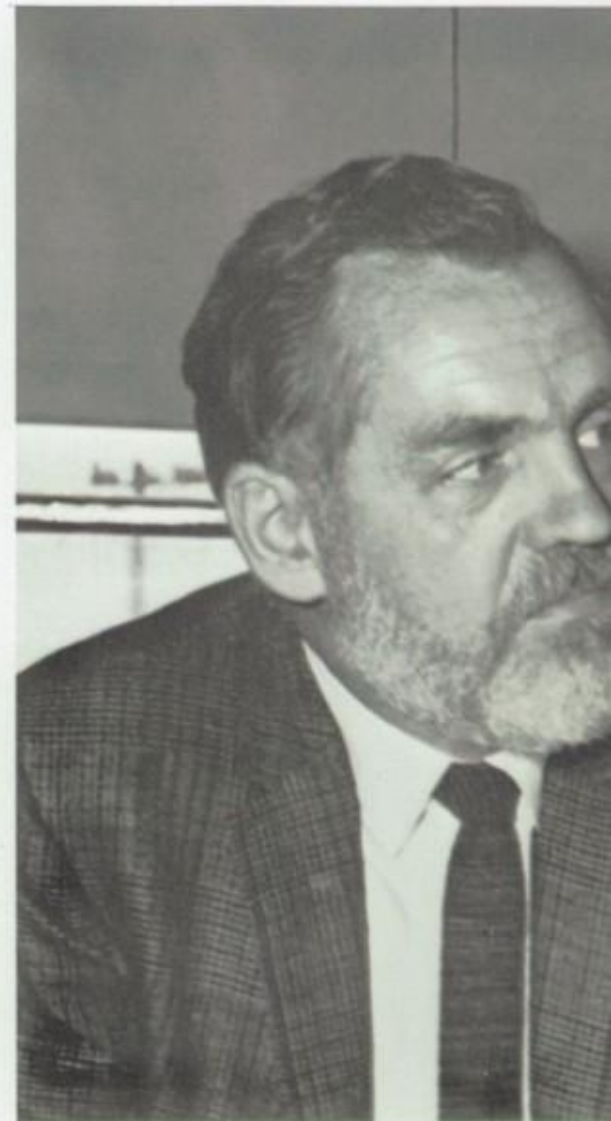

Each season is but an infinitesimal point. It no sooner comes that it is gone. It has no duration. It simply gives a tone and a hue to my thought. Each annual phenomenon is a reminiscence and prompting.

Our thoughts and sentiments answer to the revolutions of the season, as two cog-wheels fit into each other. We are conversant with only one point of contact at a time, from which we receive a prompting and impulse and instantly pass to a new season or point of contact.

A year is made up of a certain series and number of sensations and thoughts which have their language in nature.

Now I am ice, now I am sorrel. Each experience reduces itself to a mood of the mind."

June 6, 1857 Henry David Thoreau

DEDICATION

"Some people look at an inner-city high school with its students from many different backgrounds and say that it is the whole world in miniature with everyone getting along together. Other people see only the problems.

Our own experiences here at Garfield, however, tell us a story that is closer to the truth: that understanding comes from day to day contacts, from meeting our problems head on, and from constant effort to show respect for every other person in the Garfield High School Community.

You have added a valuable dimension to your own education by your concern in these matters."

Frank S. Hanawalt, Principal

Leadership, integrity, and devotion to the development of Garfield characterize our principal, Mr. Frank S. Hanawalt.

Schooling started at the University of Puget Sound, in Tacoma, where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Far Eastern studies. From there he attended the University of Washington, where he earned a Master's degree in Education.

Mr. Hanawalt has worked at the administrative level in several Seattle high schools. In the fall of 1959, he joined the faculty of Garfield as principal. Under the guidance and encouragement of Mr. Hanawalt, many new programs have been developed. First, there were the Advanced Placement English course and a construction mathematics class. Then, exchanges between Garfield and other high schools were promoted. Most recent are the Senior Child development and sociology courses.

He has won the respect and admiration of both students and faculty for his friendship and love of Garfield.

It is with great pleasure that we dedicate the 1968 Arrow to Mr. Frank Hanawalt.

Mr. Lindh

Vice-Principal

The year of 1967-1968 has all too quickly become a moment of the past. From this past we reflect on the growth and maturity we have gained and the enjoyable experiences we have had through our associations in school life.

It is my hope that your experiences at Garfield this year have helped to build a treasure of fond memories that will be remembered with pleasure in the years to come.

"The Senior Class of Garfield High School has had a varied and productive year. This group has sponsored two highly successful school dances, put on the Senior Prom, and have taken a train trip to Vancouver, British Columbia. The Senior Class contributed the leading members of Garfield's successful football and basketball teams as well as many of our other school activities. In retrospect, we are proud to be from Garfield High School."

'68

We, the graduating class of 1968, have completed three wonderful and unforgettable years here at James A. Garfield. For some, the years may have been hard, for others enjoyable, but all have succeeded in our own way. As we leave the security of high school life we can look forward hopefully to our future in the adult world. Many of this class will go on to further their education, some will work, and some will raise families. All of us, however, will have the common background of having come from one of the finest schools in the city.

Juniors

The junior class has shown itself to be fully capable of taking on the responsibilities and the rewards as the leader of Garfield High School for 69. The spirit and pride which it has shown for Garfield this past year will be what will make 1969 a year to look forward to.

Fr. Anita Locke president, L. Sheila Manchester secretary, C. Arthur Rosenbaum vice-president, R. Pat Gilliam treasurer.

"The Jaunty Juniors rode high this year flitting from sponsoring dances, taking national tests, selling magazines and pennants, and buying jerky, peperoni, and apples. We've pulled together and man, we've got Soul!

Now the 69'ers are ready to quit flitting and to fly higher toward the Senior Summit."

Sophomores

L. Deborah Wheeler vice-president, C. Karen Yates president, R. Patrice Cann secretary-treasurer.

"There are two matters man is more concerned with than with anything else: the human condition, and the human spirit. As sophomores we hope to endure the human condition with courage and patience. Even more strongly we expect to fulfill and affirm the human spirit - what man hopes for, dreams of, and aspires to - as nobly and as humanly as ever we can."

The class of 1970, the first graduating class of the next decade, has adapted exceptionally well to its new environment here at Garfield. Not only have the sophomores discovered the spirit and the mood of Garfield, but they have added some of their own. Their spirit at the many athletic events and their widespread participation in the various school activities and organizations have helped to make this a memorable year for the class of 68.

Behind the Scenes

Organizations

A. S. G.

Mr. Nelson
Adviser

Among the large quota of Executive Council are the jobs to regulate and co-ordinate student activities effectively to develop good citizenship. It also helps to provide equal representation in government for each student of James A. Garfield.

Inter-High, an organization composed of 14 metro high schools in the city, has one main goal: to function as one body in creating better relations between the various schools, as well as in the community.

Inter-High Council

Executive Council

Left To Right: Back Row: Dan Richman, Jun. Rep.-Large, Bruce Waldo, A.S.G. Pres., Joe Jones, A.S.G. V.P. Front Row: Anita Locke, Jun. Class Pres., Janice Stallworth, Rep. Council Pres., Diane Wong, Inter-High Pres., Hideko Byse, A.S.G. Sec., Mary-Ann Bell, Rep. Council Sec., Karen Yates, Soph. Class Pres., Mary McCulloch, A.S.G. Trea. Not pictured: Maren Keezer, Girls' Club Pres., Larry Taylor, Men's Club Pres., Ruthan Kurose, Junior Rep.-Large.

Representative Council

Janice Stallworth presides over the weekly Representative Council meetings, which all roll presidents attend. This organization enables Garfield students to voice their opinions about school affairs and thus maintain a closer relationship with the administration. Mr. Jack Scott is the adviser.

Girls' Club

Guest speaker, Mrs. W. Magnuson.

Maren Keezer, Girls' Club President, along with her cabinet and adviser, Mrs. F. Braxton, started off the school year with the annual orientation program for the sophomore girls which enabled these new students to become familiar with the school.

With the help of Mrs. Warren G. Magnuson, the Girls' Club initiated a "Beautification" program. The Blimey Day assembly, which honored our football and cross country teams, was enjoyed by the entire student body. The traditional Casaba Day assembly honored the athletes of spring sports. Mother-Daughter Tea proved to be an exceptionally entertaining event.

Girls' Club Cabinet.

GARFIELD'S MEN'S CLUB "68"

President
Larry Taylor

Last year's Boys' Club was the last of its kind. This year, under the leadership of L. Archibald Taylor, it progressed into the maturity of the Men's Club. One of their foremost activities was the successful skating party. They also helped with the KJR "Haunted House" and participated well in strengthening the pep assemblies. Through the Men's Club participation, they have shown the true spirit of Garfield.

Purple Paw

This year's Purple Paw has devoted much of their time and effort serving Garfield and the surrounding community. The traditional slogan "Always willing to lend a helping paw" was exemplified through their many worthwhile projects throughout the year. Among these included working for the Anti-Tuberculosis League and community hospitals, receptions for school athletes, and Christmas and Halloween projects for many children of the community. Through their services the members have achieved the satisfaction of helping others.

Bulldog Club

The Bulldog Club is a senior boys honorary service organization whose members are selectively picked for their leadership qualities and their willingness to serve Garfield. The members served as ushers at many of the school activities and took part in such activities as this year's magazine drive. The Bulldog Club has contributed much to this past year and in turn its members have been rewarded by the friendship and enjoyment found in the club.

Adviser, Mr. Byron Johnson; Vice President, Elliot Brim; President, George Fujimoto; Secretary-Treasurer, Tommie Oiyee.

InReCo

InReCo consists of the Foreign Language Clubs and the Exchange Club of Garfield.

Participating in the oldest high school Exchange Program in the country, Garfield sent PATSY SULLIVAN to Braunschweig, Germany, for one year. In return, TINA LEHMANN came to Garfield.

InReCo raised $2000 to send Patsy to Germany this year by selling stocks, candy, fruit cakes, and from donations in the community.

Tina Lehman, a junior, was selected to represent Braunschweig, Germany as their exchange student to Garfield.

Werner Garbade, a senior, was an exchange student to Garfield from Brazil.

Left To Right: Barbara Carlsson, Gael Hawes, Joyce Daniels, Sharleen Robinson, Diane Wong, Jackie Harrison
— not pictured: Fertis Taylor, Maury Bailey, Larry Stone.

The ten week exchange students from Shoreline to Garfield are Anne Wohlwend, Brenda Fuller, Ron Lamb, Barbara Paynter.

G.I.R.C.

G.I.R.C., Group Inter-Relations Council, was established to promote better relationships between Garfield and other Seattle high schools.

One day exchanges with Nathan Hale and Sammamish and a ten week exchange with Shoreline gave the participating students a chance to make new friends and to gain new experiences.

The various committees of G.I.R.C. worked their best to make possible these exchanges and others that occurred during the school year.

J. A. G. Clubs

Pep Club

Students whose interests in a certain field or hobby extend further than his studies have the benefit of the many clubs here at Garfield.

Meeting before or after school, the members of the club learn and teach others about their special subject. The clubs provide worthwhile and enjoyable way in which to escape the pressures of the academic world.

Assistants

A group of students that has gone unrecognized at Garfield are the many assistants. They have been a tremendous aid to the faculty as well as the school. Besides helping in the classrooms, some have assisted in the main office, attendance office, lunchroom and nurse's office. Others have eased the work load in the library, in audio-visual, in the bookroom, and in the study hall.

A special thanks go to these students who have proven a great benefit to Garfield High School.

Honor Society

Officers: Seated, Aviva Offman, Vice President; Nancy Gullick, Second Vice President; Marion Bartl, Banquet Chairman; Jeannette Cyphers, Financial Chairman. Standing, Paul Spickard, Inter High Activity Coordinator; Jon Bridge, President; Mr. Cairns, Adviser; Don Shute, Vice President.

The Garfield Honor Society is composed of students who have achieved a grade point of 3.5 or better. The dedication of the officers and the enthusiasm of the members enabled the organization to hold many successful and enjoyable events. Among them were a car wash, to raise money for The Honor Society Scholarship Program, a can food drive, and the annual Honor Society Banquet.

Welcome, Mr. Fidler

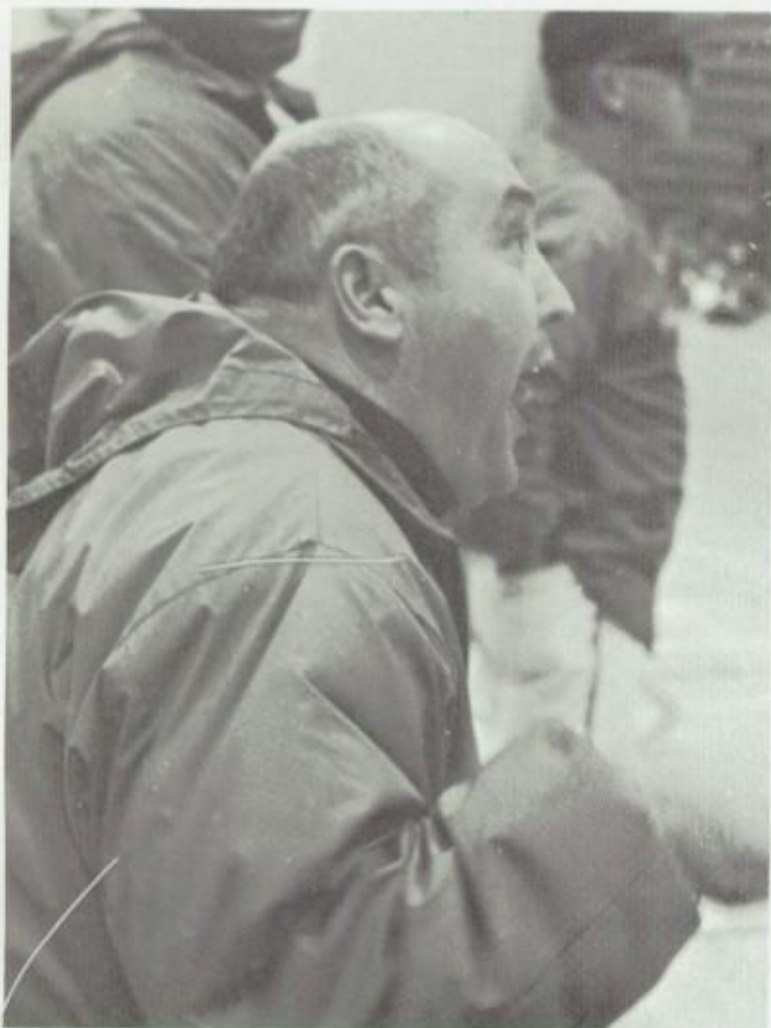

"Be thankful for the opportunity you have to make your life more significant and helpful to others"

Frank Fidler

James A. Garfield welcomed the return of Mr. Frank Fidler to its faculty as the new principal. From 1942 to 1953 he was the coach of Garfield's Basketball Team, and later from 1959 to 1961 he served as the school's Vice-Principal.

Though Garfield regretted the loss of one of its finest principals, Frank Hanawalt, the school was fortunate to have Mr. Fidler assigned to the position.

Aside from the usual coverage of Garfield activities and sports events, the Garfield Messenger has taken an active role in bringing forth meaningful and at times controversial subjects in the form of editorials. These subjects are pertinent to all students and faculty.

This publication is a tool for students' opinions and can play an important part in their lives at Garfield.

The staff promoted its 30th annual publication

Pen

The 1967-68 Pen Staff combined both semesters' material in order to make one large, special issue celebrating its 30th anniversary. Much consideration went into the judging of the many manuscripts that were submitted by Garfield students. The members of Pen promoted the magazine by making posters, signs, and putting on a skit before an assembly.

Under the supervision of the adviser, Mrs. Patricia Borgstrom, the editor, Bronwen Craven, and the staff, another successful Pen was published.

BASEBALL

The background of the page is a complex, abstract design. It features a variety of organic, flowing shapes in shades of light gray and white, some of which are filled with a darker gray. These shapes resemble stylized leaves, waves, or perhaps the folds of fabric. In the lower portion of the image, there are several vertical, slightly curved lines that look like stylized reeds or perhaps the spokes of a wheel. The overall effect is a textured, layered composition that frames the central text.

Puppettes

Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors who enjoy entertaining and creating dances have united to make up this exciting group. Participation, service and the love of school drive them to increase their skills. One should see this group representing Garfield at football games, basketball games, and parades, for they are real swingers.

Homecoming

Garfield's annual Homecoming was held during the last week of October. It was a time of excitement and anticipation as former cheerleaders and Garfieldites returned to attend the Homecoming Assembly which preceded the big game. School spirit reigned throughout the week and corsages were traditionally worn. Climaxing the event was the crowning of Mr. and Miss Bulldog, Luther Sligh and Clara Stephens. Garfield's victory over Queen Anne marked the highlight of Homecoming, 1967.

Intramurals

This year the Intramural Sports program provided an opportunity for both hard work and new friends. Directed by Miss Wilkinson and Mr. O'Galligan, the program included basketball, weight training, soccer, and volleyball for the boys. The girls after-school program included volleyball, archery, and tennis. There was also co-ed badminton, ping pong, gymnastics, and the swim team.

Juliana Amos

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea,

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep
Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.
